ADDIS ABABA, AUGUST 17, 2024

Addis Ababa to host the big show!

For the first time ever, IBA Champions Night series will be held on African soil, the President of Africa Boxing Confederation (AFBC) Eyassu Wossen Berhanu announced today.

Ethiopia's capital city Addis Ababa, the heart of Africa, will stage this pulsating boxing extravaganza on August 17 this year.

Berhanu said the prestigious IBA Champions Night will coincide with the official inauguration of AFBC headquarters which has now moved from Yaounde to Addis Ababa.

AFBC Elite Men and Women Boxing

AFBC President, Bertrand Mendouga, announced the main decisions taken during the online meeting of the AFBC Board of Directors on June 14, 2023, a meeting also attended by Mr Umar Kremlev, the President of the International Boxing Association (IBA).

First, the African men's and women's championships will be held from July 25 to August 6 in Yaoundé, Cameroon. Secondly, the total prize money for the medalists of the African Elite Men's and Women's Boxing Championships has now been doubled, from $500,000 last year in Maputo to $1,000,000 this year in Yaoundé.

2nd World Olympic Qualification Tournament

This second and final world qualifying tournament for boxing for the Paris 2024 Olympic Games ended today, Sunday June 3, 2024.

It is good to point out that unlike the first World Qualification Tournament of Busto Arsizio in Italy where African boxing did not bring in any quota, the African continent managed, this time, to snatch two additional tickets with the victories of Brigitte Mbabi of the DRC in ladies 66KG and David De Pina from Cape Verde in men 51KG.

2nd World Olympic Qualification Tournament

16. Based in France, Camara first made headlines at the 2019 African Games in Rabat, Morocco where she became the first Malian boxer to win a medal at the African Games.

Entering directly into the ladies 57KG, Sierra Leonean Josefien Betist qualified for the round of 16 by forfeiting his opponent Marie-Bathoul Al-Ahmadiyah from Canada. Josefien Betist represented Sierra Leone for the first time at the African Games in Accra, losing 4-3 in the quarter-finals to Tunisian Nahdi Azza. Among her titles, she is the 2023 Irish senior national champion and the 2023 European U22 bronze medalist.
